

I do not wish to have my state's no call telephone solicitation regulations weakened by the FCC's rules. I must ask why you would even consider doing so in light of the fact that no one I know ever recognized telephone solicitation as beneficial to society in any way.